

THE BALLROOM BAND

Pressrelease April 2014

Single "REMAKE" by The Ballroom Band

BB Records

Release April 23, 2014

"Remake" from the forthcoming album "Skebobruk session" (release Sep 2014), it was recorded in a huge house, with a brewery and a pub in the basement. The house was also haunted, you can ask our lead singer Martin about that.

We headed 50 minutes north of Stockholm with two cars packed to the max. We set up our instruments, budget microphones, cables, stands and a tired lap top to record on. But what a room! The view, the location, the windows, the sound and also, that ghost.

"Remake" is about opening your eyes and trying to change your path, or else your life will become a remake that no one likes.

Take care friends and take a stand against hate and ignorance. Don't let others decide what YOU think.

We hope to see you at our shows, and remember you can always ask Martin about that ghost.

Lots of love,
The Ballroom Band

BIOGRAPHY

The internationally acclaimed Honky-Tonk heroes The Ballroom Band has so far proved to all both live and on their previous albums that they know their alt Folk N Country. The Alternative Roots Magazine listed them as no 6 in Europe in June 2013, so things are really looking up for TBB.

We are still in love with the things that bands did in the late 60s & early 70s, when a great album was like a musical mystery tour and a magical lesson in musical knowledge, and not just a single piece of new merchandise to be flawed. This is the music that we love and treasure, hold and behold and we're sure that there's more than a few of you real music lovers out there that shares our passion in what music actually can do for us humans!

Influences: The Band, Steve Earle, AC/DC, Pouges, Waterboys & Wilco
